Project & Export Finance

We are pleased to announce that, with immediate effect, Patrick Blanchard joins the Project & Export Finance team in the role of Deputy Senior Vice President Project and Export Finance. In this role he will report to François Salvini, SVP Project and Export Finance.

Patrick Blanchard joins Alstom having spent his career to date in the banking sector in a number of international institutions. Most recently he spent 10 years with DEXIA Credit Local where he was Executive Vice President for Global Project Finance. Patrick brings with him a strong international experience and track record in this important field. He will play a key role in our efforts to leverage on Project and Export Finance as a means to support our business development.

We ask you to join us in welcoming Patrick to Alstom and we wish him every success in his new role.
