

« Back to Article

Dexia restructure puts Blanchard on top

27/11/2009

Dexia's project finance business line has been restructured, placing Patrick Blanchard at the top of the tree as head of the global team.

Blanchard takes over the leading role following the departure of Patrice Vabre. René Kassis has taken on the role of deputy to Blanchard.

Specialist teams within Dexia are headed by:

- René Kassis in Paris for infrastructure
- Xavier Monteau in Paris for energy and environment
- Mireille Barthez in Paris for asset finance and private equity
- Gery Milants in Brussels for export, port and ship finance
- Carroll Bouteculet in Paris for portfolio management

Bouteculet will join Dexia shortly from RBS.

Outside Paris, project finance teams continue to be headed by:

- Gery Milants in Brussels
- Burcu Avci Evciler in Istanbul
- Iain Wales in London
- Lorenzo Hernandez in Madrid
- Alban de la Selle in Montreal
- Guy Cirincione in New York
- Ed Ludwig in New York (financial advisory)
- Fabrizio Pagani in Rome
- Ulrich Verkamp in Germany

 All content © Copyright 2009 Emap Limited, all rights reserved. | Printed from <http://www.ijonline.com>